ABOUT THE PROPERTY

Arranged over three floors, this charming, detached period cottage offers a wealth of character alongside modern conveniences, including an air source heat pump and double glazing throughout. With three bedrooms, colourful and characterful interiors, exposed beams, slanted and vaulted ceilings and an impressive inglenook fireplace with wood burner, the property offers a wonderfully individual home with a flexible layout. Further benefits include a south-facing rear garden, gated driveway parking for up to four vehicles and a single garage.

LOWER GROUND FLOOR

The property is entered via a generous sunroom on the lower ground floor, providing a versatile entrance space that could be used as a seating area or additional reception space. From here, a door leads into the kitchen/dining room, which spans the width of the property and features attractive Italian-style floor tiling. The dining area provides ample space for a dining table, with a rear-facing window and useful high-level built-in cabinetry. The kitchen sits to the opposite side and is fitted with shaker-style cabinetry, solid oak worktops and a rear facing window. A 1 ½ bowl sink with drainer, freestanding double oven with four-ring electric hob and an undercounter fridge complete the room. A door from the kitchen leads down to the cellar, while stairs rise to the sitting room. The cellar offers excellent additional storage and utility space. With two sinks, cabinetry and room for a washing machine, tumble dryer and further appliances, this versatile area is currently arranged as a home bar but could be adapted to suit a variety of uses.

GROUND FLOOR

The ground floor opens into the characterful sitting room, where oak floorboards, exposed beams and three front facing windows create a welcoming setting. A large inglenook fireplace with a wood burner forms an impressive focal point, with useful storage cupboards positioned to one side. To the opposite side of the room, a separate area provides space for a home office or additional seating. A door leads through to a landing, giving access to the bathroom, bedroom three and first floor. Bedroom three is a single bedroom with a rear facing window, vaulted ceiling and exposed wooden beams. A door also provides side access to the outside of the property. The bathroom is full of character, featuring a freestanding bath with shower attachment, separate shower with rainfall showerhead, WC and basin. A rear-facing obscured window and exposed beams beneath the vaulted ceiling add further charm, while the room also benefits from underfloor heating.

FIRST FLOOR

The first floor provides access to two further bedrooms, with a useful storage nook at the top of the stairs. Bedroom two is a single room with a front-facing window, while the principal bedroom is a generous double bedroom featuring two front facing windows, vaulted ceilings and exposed beams.

OUTSIDE

The property is positioned on the road and is approached via a front gate, while a shared driveway to the side leads through to the parking and garage at the rear. The south facing garden offers a combination of lawn, patio and gravelled areas, complemented by a selection of fruit trees. A gated driveway provides parking for up to four vehicles and gives access to the single garage, which benefits from lighting and power. Steps rise alongside the property to an elevated seating area, accessed via the front gate and providing a lovely spot to sit and overlook the rear garden. This flexible outdoor space, together with the south-facing rear garden, gated driveway and garage, completes this distinctive and characterful period home.
